Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 22 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Dry with clear skies and a fairly widespread frost overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
After a fine end to the day, it will quickly turn chilly this evening. Overnight will stay dry with clear skies, and with generally light winds another chilly night with a fairly widespread ground frost, especially in rural areas. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Friday:
Another fine, dry day with plenty of sunshine and generally light winds. Feeling warm with afternoon temperatures a little higher than on Thursday. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Occasionally cloudier, especially near the coast, but still with sunny spells and predominantly dry. Cooler by day, with a more noticeable easterly breeze developing, and still chilly overnight.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.